Novum would like to warn its clients that all investments involve some degree of risk. The value of investments can go down so you may get back less than what you initially invested. Fluctuations in exchange rates may also have an adverse impact on the value of investments. More importantly, past performance should not be seen as an indication of future performance.

Tax rates and reliefs may change and the value of tax reliefs depends on individual circumstances. Please consult a tax, legal, finance, accounting or other adviser as appropriate for specific advice based on your specific personal circumstances.
